

I rely heavily on media coverage of the election and campaigning prior to Nov. 2nd because I am unable to personally be involved due to my overseas orders. I believe Sinclair acting outside the bounds of their ethical responsibilities as a journalist entity. This is a growing problem, in my opinion, and action needs to be taken to strengthen laws that prevent monopolistic, profit driven businesses to taint our democratic system.

Sincerely, Eric Sears, USN